associated with publication in the Federal Register. The intended effect of this action is to provide up-to-date cross reference information to users of the HMR.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 30, 1988.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jacquelyn F. Smith, Standards Division, Office of Hazardous Materials Transportation, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20590, Telephone (202) 366-4488.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: An alphanumeric listing, containing a cross reference index of identification numbers and proper shipping names shown in the Hazardous Materials Table in § 172.101 and the Optional Hazardous Materials Table in § 172.102, appears as Appendix A to Subpart B in Part 172. This listing is provided for informational purposes only and as a convenience for users. RSPA has not routinely updated this listing largely due to the effort and cost associated with publishing the listing in the Federal Register. Removing the listing as Appendix A to Subpart B of Part 172 and adding it as an index immediately following the Table of Contents to Part 172 allows RSPA to update and publish the index annually in the Code of Federal Regulations without the added burden of publishing it in the Federal Register.

Since this amendment imposes no new requirement and is merely procedural in nature, notice and public procedure are unnecessary. For this same reason, this amendment is effective without the customary 30-day delay following publication. This will allow the changes to appear in the next revision of 49 CFR.

The RSPA has determined that this rule, as promulgated, is not a major rule under the terms of Executive Order 12291 or significant under DOT implementing procedures (44 FR 11034). A final regulatory evaluation and environmental assessment were not prepared as this amendment is not a substantive change in the HMR.

Given the fact that this amendment is procedural in nature and imposes no regulatory duties, I certify that this amendment will not, as promulgated, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

This action has been analyzed in accordance with the principles and criteria contained in Executive Order 12612, and it has been determined that this final rule has no federalism implications.

49 CFR Part 172

[Docket No. HM-189G; Amdt. No. 172-113]

Hazardous Materials Regulations;
Miscellaneous Amendment

AGENCY: Research and Special Programs
Administration (RSPA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: RSPA is amending the Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR) to relocate the identification number cross reference to proper shipping names which appears as Appendix A to Subpart B in Part 172 (49 CFR Parts 171-179). This cross reference listing will appear as an index in the 1989 edition of the 49 CFR immediately following the Table of Contents to Part 172. This action will allow RSPA to update and publish the listing in the Code of Federal Regulations without the cost and effort

List of Subjects in 49 CFR Part 172
