ORM-D Phase-out Ends Dec. 31, 2020

The last day to offer or accept hazardous materials as ORM-D is December 31, 2020. To prevent rejected shipments, confusion, and civil penalties moving forward, shippers must mark and label packages according to the US DOT regulations for limited quantities.

ENDS 12/31/20

Hazmat shippers may ship ORM-D packages for highway transportation only until the year ends.
