Dear Ms. Enright:

This is in response to your letter dated March 1, 2000, requesting updated publications from the U.S. Department of Transportation.

The materials you requested are not available from the U.S. Department of Transportation. The sources listed below will enable you to obtain the materials you requested. Your letter has also been forwarded to the Office of the Associate Administrator for Pipeline Safety since certain of the sections cited for update, 49 CFR 192.281(e) and 192.283(b), are addressed in the Pipeline Safety Regulations (49 CFR Parts 186-199).

The Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR) are found in Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 100-185 (revised as of October 1, 1999), which include the Hazardous Materials Table (§ 172.101 HMT), special provisions, hazard communication, emergency response information and training, and packaging requirements for hazardous materials, such as explosives. The HMR are revised and published annually. The HMR may be obtained from the U.S. Government Bookstore and is available at the following URL: <http://hazmat.dot.gov>.

The numbers, "UN 0335 and UN 0336", referenced in your letter, are identification numbers associated with hazardous material descriptions designated in the § 172.101 HMT, which is in alphabetical order by chemical or generic shipping name. The descriptions associated with the referenced numbers are "Fireworks, 1.3G, UN 0335, PG II" and "Fireworks, 1.4G, UN 0336, PG II".

RE: DOTn standards referenced in ICC International Codes

To Whom It May Concern:

I am currently in the process of updating our files on referenced standards to be published in the ICC International Building, Fuel Gas, and Property Maintenance Codes.

I wish to verify that the attached list(s) displays the correct designation title and most current date of issue for each standard. Please indicate if there are any supplements, amendments, addenda or revisions to the standards and the publication date. If any of the information is inaccurate, please indicate these changes and corrections on a copy of the list and return it to me as soon as possible, but no later than April 17, 2000, so that I have the correct information for my files. You may fax the information to me at (708) 799-0320 or e-mail me at kenright@bocai.org.

Also, please send me a copy of your current Publications Catalog for my files and copies of the standards listed.

If this letter has reached the wrong person, please forward it to the appropriate party.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Kelly D. Enright
